*Perfect for retrofitting in modern interiors with flush mounted fireboxes.
