An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany and Arabescato marble commode. The two drawer chest is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs with delicate fitted mottled ormolu sabots and top caps. Each leg is connected by a most decorative bottom tier with a fine raised edge. Above a decorative carved mottled band are two sans-traverse drawers (without crossbar) showcasing the cabinet maker's high skill set decorated with ormolu pulls and berried laurel keyhole escutcheons tied with a ribbon and flanked by elegant fluted columns. Each side displays a recessed panel showcasing the warm Mahogany grain while above is the original Arabescato marble top with rounded corners and a delicate mottled border. All original gilt, patina, and hardware throughout.
