A striking and very unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany and ormolu console. The freestanding two tiered demi lune console is raised by beautiful circular tapered legs with remarkable topie shaped ormolu sabots and fine top caps. Superb circular tapered supports lead upwards with exceptional richly chased fitted foliate chandelles and outstanding mottled top caps and are each connected by the bottom Mahogany tier decorated with a pierced wrap around gallery. Above each support are unique and most decorative fluted fitted plaques with lovely patterns flanking the apron with impressive pierced interlocking mottled foliate ormolu plaques fitted into a recessed background. Above is the French polished Mahogany top showcasing the beautiful wood grain framed within a most elegant pierced ormolu gallery.
