A high quality and handsome French early 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and slate cabinet. The cabinet is raised by elegant circular fluted tapered legs with fine ormolu sabots. At the center is one door which showcases the beautiful mahogany grain framed within a fine ormolu band with richly chased corner rosettes. The door displays a detailed ormolu foliate keyhole escutcheon and opens to reveal a finished inside, original hardware and four adjustable shelves. Fluted columns lead up each side to the original charcoal colored slate top which rests above. All original gilt throughout.
