A handsome and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany buffet, circa 1880. The buffet has a very architectural feel and is raised by square tapered legs below a fluted column which divide each door and drawer. The four high quality mahogany doors open to reveal an interior shelf and are elegantly decorated by ormolu keyhole escutcheons. The four drawers have paneled façades and ormolu handles. All below the original thick white Carrara marble top.
