A most elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu, and Noir Antique marble chest. The three drawer chest is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs with lovely ormolu sabots. Above each leg are superb fluted columns flanking the two central drawers which are sans traverse (without crossbar) showcasing the cabinet maker's high skill. Each drawer is decorated with richly chased rosettes and berried laurel pulls with charming tied ribbons all framed within beaded bands. The top drawer displays the same beautiful finely detailed pulls also framed within a delicate beaded band and centered by an exceptional berried laurel keyhole escutcheon tied with a lovely bow. Above is the original Noir Antique marble top with a fine mottled border.
