A handsome and most impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Giltwood, and Portoro Marble buffet. This exceptional two door buffet obtains its original hardware and marble top and is raised on a straight base with rounded corners below the doors that open to reveal six adjustable shelves. Running along the base of the doors and wrapping around both sides is a fine Giltwood band. Two tapered fluted Mahogany columns with Giltwood bands around their plinths and capitals flank the two central doors. The two front doors with their central keyholes are designed with mottled Giltwood edges surrounding the recessed panels on each door. Above the two front doors and each side are two parallel Giltwood bands that introduce the stunning mottled edge Portoro marble top.
