A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Kingwood, ormolu, and Brocatelle Violette side table attributed to François Linke. The table is raised by circular tapered fluted legs with fine ball and foliate fillet ormolu sabots and mottled top caps with wrap around berried laurel bands. Above each leg is a superb richly chased rosette in a lovely satin and burnished finish flanking impressive finely detailed pierced ormolu plaques of charming bacchanalian cherubs playing horns amidst musical instruments and scrolled foliate vines with grape clusters. Above is the original circular Brocatelle Violette marble top fitted within an elegant mottled wrap around ormolu gallery.

François Linke (1855-1946) Renowned 19th Century Parisian Ébéniste. Linke created historical interpretations of Louis XV and Louis XVI styles. He displayed at the Paris Universal Exhibition of 1900 where he received a gold medal.
