A stunning and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Ormolu, and Breccia Violette marble buffet, signed Francois Linke. This exceptional three drawer two door demi lune buffet is raised on four circular tapered legs with Ormolu topie shaped sabots and mottled edged top caps with triangular pendants hanging below. The straight front apron is designed with an Ormolu scrolling foliate central reserve, while with two side aprons are left smooth. The front displays two sans traverse drawers edged by beaded Ormolu bands with inverted corners and centrally located keyholes, with the original keys. The top drawer, with a crossbar separating from the bottom two drawers, is decorated with Ormolu scrolling reserve. To each sides are curved doors showcasing the same Ormolu bands as the center with a scrolling reserve above. Column like supports with Ormolu acanthus leaf plinths, faux fluted designs with inlays, and Ormolu scrolling top capitals with berried foliates hanging below flank the two central drawers. The Breccia Violette marble top showcases a stunning mottled edge with protruding corners that follow the shape of the buffet. All original hardware and keys.
