A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and Brocatelle marble coffee table. The table is raised by fine square tapered legs with lovely fitted square mottled ormolu sabots. The apron is decorated with beautiful recessed mahogany panels framed within a fine mottled ormolu band. The front is centered by one drawer with a decorative ormolu pull while each side displays pull outs retaining their original gold tooled fitted leather tops. Above is the original striking Brocatelle marble top framed within a superb pierced wrap around ormolu gallery.
