A most elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, ormolu and Vert Maurin marble buffet. The two door three drawer buffet is raised by slender circular tapered fluted legs with fine fitted ormolu sabots and mottled top caps. The doors each display most decorative recessed panels showcasing the beautiful Moucheté Mahogany wood grain with ormolu keyhole escutcheons and lovely rosettes framed within fine mottled bands. The rounded open sides display two shelves with their original mirrored backplates with the top shelf displaying the original fitted Vert Maurin surface framed within a remarkable pierced ormolu gallery. The drawers also display recessed designs framed within mottled borders with most decorative tied fluted pulls with the central drawer displaying a beautiful richly chased pierced central plaque of crossed foliate garlands and berried laurel branches amidst a family crest like reserve. Above is the original Vert Maurin marble top with a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
