A stunning and highly quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Satinwood, Ormolu, and Breccia Violette Marble side table, attr. to Theodore Millet. This exquisite single drawer circular side table is raised by four octagonal tapered Mahogany legs with Ormolu edges and supported on foliate designed Ormolu sabots. Above each leg are beautiful mottled top caps with fluted and Les Oves designs with striking finely detailed corner mounts of blooming flowers. The straight front apron has a fantastic pierced Rocaille designed Ormolu plaque with a central rosette atop a Satinwood inlay. The top contains a fitted circular Breccia Violette marble with an impressive pierced Ormolu gallery with crossing patterns throughout.
