An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, Tulipwood, mirror and Breche D'Alep marble dessert console. This console is elevated by four delicate circular tapered fluted legs ending in Ormolu sabots. The legs are joined by a stunning Breche D'Alep fitted tier decorated by a pierced Ormolu gallery below the original mirrored backplate. The squared legs lead to the apron which is decorated with a central drawer displaying its original lock and oval foliate pull. The apron has three recessed panels which are richly decorated by a twisted oval Ormolu design. Flanking the panels are luxuriant elongated Ormolu rosettes above each of the four legs. At the top lays its original and thick Breche D'Alep marble with a mottled edge.
