A stunning and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. marble pedestal column. The high quality pedestal is raised by a unique circular base below a triangular design with concave sides and a mottled border. The base displays a finely sculpted overlapping pattern which extend up the central column. The tapered column displays richly detailed swaging berried laurel garlands with tied ribbons. Above is a wonderfully executed tied berried laurel garland with curved designs. All below the square display platform with a mottled edge showcasing the beautiful marble veins.
