A spectacular French early 19th century Louis XVI st. Marie Antoinette Baccarat crystal and ormolu twenty four light chandelier. This very high-quality chandelier is centered by a solid crystal ball amidst a stunning array of Baccarat cut crystal pendants. At the center are four sets of three candlesticks separated by an arm with an impressive electrified crystal dagger. Each arm displays fine Baccarat crystal teardrop pendants, swaging crystal garlands and end with ormolu bobeches. The elegant central fut is encased by beautiful Baccarat crystal and is lit by four concealed lights. The secondary pierced ormolu tier displays four most unique and extremely decorative Baccarat crystal perfume bottles which are also electrified, providing a superb and most attractive glow. Elegant swaging crystal garlands cascade from the top and connect to the base and second tier. At the top crown is an impressive ormolu spray decorated with additional crystal teardrop pendants, crystal rosettes and striking swaging garlands. All original gilt throughout.
