An exceptional and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Napoleon III period side table/center table with its original Florentine pietra dura marble top. The circular table is raised by elegant baluster shaped feet with fine foliate accents below block reserves and circular tapered fluted legs. Each leg is connected by a concave stretcher while the elegant mottled top caps display lovely finely detailed foliate accents tied in bows with charming swaging ribbons. Above each leg is a richly carved block rosette flanking a most decorative recessed panel at the frieze with a fine carved border below a wrap around beaded band. Above is the original stunning fitted pietra dura top with a beautiful central inlaid coupe with grape and fruit amidst finely detailed leaves with a charming richly sculpted flowers and beaded swaging garlands at the border in an exceptional array of wonderful vivid colored marbles and semi precious stones all set on a black Belgian marble background.
