A striking and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Onyx and cloisonné pedestal column. The pedestal is raised by an elegant circular base with a fine stepped design and a beautiful mottled ormolu band with superb interlocking bands and richly chased rosettes. The circular central support showcases the wonderful Onyx veins with a striking central wrap around ormolu band with a similar rosette and interlocking design with stunning colorful wonderfully executed cloisonné floral and zigzag designs. Above is an additional finely detailed wrap around ormolu band with a lovely tied berried laurel band and square top display tier.
