A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. onyx and white Carrara marble sink with base and mirror. The sink is raised by a fine rectangular onyx base with cut corners and a mottled white Carrara marble band. Leading up are most elegant fluted designs with fitted detailed foliate chandelles and a striking large richly carved central white Carrara marble rosette. The basin displays a unique and most decorative mottled border with a beautiful tied design. Above is the original matching mirror surround with a mottled design.

Shown with faucets that are sold separately.

Provenance: From a Parisian "Hotel Particular" - a townhouse of grand sort.

Height of Base: 30.75", Sink: 5.5" , Mirror: 33.5"
