A beautiful and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Alabaster chandelier. The six arm nine light chandelier is centered by a lovely bottom foliate ormolu finial below the remarkable Alabaster bowl with a fine mottled design and elegantly curved neck. The Alabaster bowl houses three light bulbs emitting a wonderful warm glow and is encased by three charming intricately detailed Bacchanalian maidens from where two arms branch out from each. Each arm displays an elegantly curved design adorned with acanthus leaves leading to circular bobeches with lovely foliate and seashell designs at the underside and fine candle cups. Three uniquely designed chains lead upwards to the top crown with a beautiful foliate finial and a fluted band below the striking sunburst designed top. All original gilt throughout.
