An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and alabaster chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a fine bottom acorn finial below the striking circular mottled alabaster dome. The alabaster dome houses the light bulbs offering a beautiful warm glow. The pierced rim displays a most decorative and detailed twisted design and fine acanthus leaves amidst interlocking patterns. Above the three chains is the original richly chased ormolu canopy with swaging draped fabric design and fluted pattern. All original gilt throughout.
