An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal centerpiece bowl. The centerpiece is raised by a rectangular ormolu base with concave corners and decorative recessed panels. The bowl is supported by a fine mottled base with a beautiful beaded design. Leading up each side are detailed and richly chased handles with foliate movements and a foliate wreath in a striking satin and burnished finish which encase the beautifully shaped scalloped Baccarat crystal bowl. All original gilt throughout.
