A sensational and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twelve arm sixteen light chandelier is centered by the original stunning crystal ball with fine fluted designs below the beautifully shaped ormolu cage. The cage and each of the lovely scrolled arms are adorned with a stunning array of thick high quality tear drop and kite shaped Baccarat crystal pendants leading to circular mottled bobeches and elegant baluster shaped candle cups. At the center is the impressive fut encased within stunning Baccarat crystal reserves with exceptional and most decorative curved movements adorned with additional beautiful crystal pendants. Leading up the cage are fine reserves and four striking daggers also repeated at the top all below the remarkable top crown with superb ormolu sprays also adorned with beautiful tear drop and kite shaped crystal pendants.
