A stunning and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and Baccarat Crystal chandelier. This wonderful eight arm eight light chandelier is centered by a solid Crystal ball pendant which hangs with smaller faceted Crystal balls from a mottled Ormolu finial. The eight curved arms displays central reserves of tear drop cut Crystal pendants before arriving at the foliate bobeches which have additional tear drop Crystal pendants. Each arm is joined at each bobèche by gently swaging Crystal garlands. The central cage is separated from the arms by a Crystal encased central support bar.

The cage is decorated with Ormolu sprays of many sizes which are decorated with rosette, tear drop, and prism cut Crystal pendants.

Separating the cage from the top crown is an additional Crystal encased central support. The Ormolu spray top crown is decorated with rosette, tear drop, and prism cut Baccarat Crystals pendants.
