A lovely and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The chandelier displays a most decorative cut Baccarat crystal dome with a fine diamond shape designs. At the rim are striking Vitruvian scrolls which wrap around the chandelier and display six floral finials attached by richly chased swaging floral garlands. The central support displays three finely curved and scrolled movements with exceptional foliate designs and elegant rosettes. The mottled top crown is centered by a most decorative twisted central support.
