A charming and extremely unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The most decorative five arm chandelier is centered by a lovely tied branch designed finial leading up to beautiful wonderfully executed palm fronds. Each frond displays an elegant pierced design with finely detailed and richly chased leaves adorned with striking arrays of prism shaped cut crystal pendants. Above are fine wheat sprigs centering a hoop with a flowing fabric garland leading upwards to a charming tied ribbon.

Available with complimentary sconces, #11322, sold separately.
