An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by a beautiful cut crystal ball amidst fine teardrop shaped crystal pendants. At the center is the stunning central fut encased with impressive and wonderfully executed crystal casings. The elegantly scrolled arms branch out in groupings of three, each adorned with a superb array of cut teardrop and prism shaped crystal pendants. Four chains lead upwards to the majestic top crown decorated with superb spray designs and additional cut crystal pendants, while at the center is a lovely and most unique tier hung by crystal garlands.
