A handsome and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and black Belgian marble centerpiece, signed F. Barbedienne. This stunning centerpiece/tazza is raised on a circular Ormolu base plate below the black Belgian marble socle support displaying mottled bands. Above is the impressive black Belgian marble bowl with recessed Ormolu reeded bands centered by a stunning and intricately detailed female mask. The Ormolu bands connect the two scrolled handles showcasing large scale male mask with serpents intertwined in their hair. The centerpiece is finished with a mottled edge and smooth interior.
