A most elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and Black Belgium marble Guéridon side table. The table is raised by handsome and detailed hoof feet adorned with large acanthus leaves joined by a triangular stretcher with concave sides and a fine central rosette. The three elegant cabriole legs support a central Black Belgium marble tier framed within a mottled and beaded Ormolu border. At the top is the original Black Belgium marble top fitted within an Ormolu mottled and beaded gallery. All original gilt throughout.
