An extremely elegant large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Blanc de Chine porcelain lamp. The lamp is raised by eight fine topie shaped feet below the impressive square support. The support displays superb richly chased scrolled foliate elements at each corner and fitted Blanc de Chine porcelain plaques at each side framed within a charming twisted rope border. Four acorn finials center the outstanding porcelain mottled socle support decorated with a richly chased ormolu band with an intertwined pattern. The impressive and beautifully shaped porcelain body displays most elegant scrolled foliate handles which lead up both sides and are decorated with fine wrap around ormolu bands and tied ribbons.
