A striking and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Brèche de Medicis marble pedestal column. The pedestal is raised by a square base with a fine bottom ormolu fillet, below a wrap around mottled border, a superb mirrored gadroon designed ormolu band, and most decorative tapered support. The circular central column displays an impressive lightly curved plinth with exceptional interlocking geometric designs in a superb satin and burnished finish, and a striking Corinthian capital with exquisite foliate designs all below the square display tier also displaying a fine mottled border.
