A striking and extremely elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Brocatelle d'Espagne marble Gueridon side table. The Gueridon is raised by handsome paw feet below lightly curved ormolu supports. Each support is connected by a bottom triangular ormolu stretcher with concave sides and an elegant richly chased central acorn finial. At the center is a Brocatelle d'Espagne marble display tier with a fine wrap around gallery. Above each support are lovely scrolled movements which center the original Brocatelle d'Espagne marble top, fitted within a superb wrap around ormolu gallery with a finely chased textured design.
