A sensational and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and cobalt blue enamel six light chandelier. The chandelier is centered by an inverted acorn final leading up richly chased foliate movements encasing the enameled cobalt blue central fut. Each beautiful arm displays a rinceaux shape where a charming and wonderfully executed bird is perched. The arms display fine twisted designs and richly chased swaging floral garlands. The central fut displays a quiver like shape with ormolu fletchings and detailed female masks amidst foliate chasing. The three most unique and decorative chains are attached at striking richly chased rams heads and lead up to the impressive tied ribbon and foliate top crown.
