A beautiful and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and cobalt blue porcelain vase. The vase is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners and an exquisite wrap around berried laurel band. The outstanding baluster shaped cobalt blue porcelain body displays an exquisite and extremely decorative shimmering like finish and an elegant lightly curved neck. The neck is flanked by richly chased Bacchanalian masks of handsome bearded men with grape leaves and grape clusters in their hair in a superb satin and burnished finish below striking scrolled acanthus leaf and Greek key shaped handles connecting to a mottled and beaded ormolu band at the top rim. All original gilt throughout
