A striking and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and cut frosted crystal centerpiece bowl. The centerpiece is raised by an impressive and most decorative ormolu base with striking deer legs with hoof feet and adorned with fine foliate designs and connected by an X shaped stretcher. At the center is a handsome bearded mask amidst foliate designs and striking foliate movements. Elegant ormolu supports lead up each side adorned with acanthus leaves and fine foliate designs leading to beautiful intricately detailed maidens with their hair tied in an updo. The original oblong shaped frosted crystal bowl above displays beautiful cut and etched foliate and floral designs throughout.
