A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and enamel cartel clock. The clock is centered by a fine bottom ormolu acorn finial below beautiful and finely chased tied berried laurel branches which extend up the enamel sides of the clock. The enamel dial displays fine pierced and intricately chased ormolu hands. Above is a charming tied bow, below the striking eternal flame in a superb satin and burnished finish. All held up by a fine ormolu tied ribbon.
