A superbly executed and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and enameled Bronze chandelier. This stunning eight light chandelier is centered by an inverted Ormolu acorn final leading up with richly chased foliate movements encasing the enameled cobalt blue Bronze central fut. Each lovely arm displays a Rinceaux shape with a charming and wonderfully executed bird perched inside. The arms display fine twisted rope designs and richly chased swaging floral garlands. The central fut is decorated with Ormolu floral reserves and detailed female masks amidst foliate designs. The four uniquely decorative knotted ropes are attached to striking richly chased rams heads that lead up to the impressive knotted rope, blue enamel and foliate top crown.
