An elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and Glass centerpiece. This stunning glass bowl is raised on an Ormolu base supported by four ball feet below mottled plinths and the fluted legs. A scrolled reeded Ormolu stretched connects the four legs with a central rosette before each legs leads to a large scale palmette capital. Supporting the bowl above is a wonderful fluted Ormolu band in a rich satin and burnished finish. The bowl displays exceptional cut lattice patterns throughout with a sunburst design in the center before being finished with a delicate Ormolu rim.
