A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and glass lantern. The lantern displays five elegantly curved sides retaining their original hand blown glass panes with a lovely ormolu scalloped base and charming richly chased berried foliate finials. At the center are five curved arms with fluted candle cups while above are beautiful scrolled foliate designs with additional berried finials and richly chased reeded urns. Five lovely curvaceous supports lead upwards to the reeded top crown centering the elegant rectangular link chain. All original gilt throughout.
