A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and Gris St. Anne marble Gueridon side table. This impressive side table is raised on three curved Ormolu legs displaying lily patterns down the shaft, foliate designs above the hoof feet, and horned ram's heads at the top cap. The three legs are connected by a twisted stretcher with an acorn reserve in the lower section, and a flat stretcher in the upper section. The circular top of this wonderful table is mottled and presents the gorgeous Gris St. Anne marble top above.
