A stunning and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu and patinated Bronze chandelier. This charming chandelier is centered at the bottom by a richly chased acorn finial below an Ormolu plate. The mottled Ormolu plate supports each of the seven scrolled foliate arms displaying patinated Bronze leaves and blooming lilies before the lily shaded bobèche and glass saucers. In the center of the chandelier is a wonderful Ormolu tazza with reeded patterns and a Les Oves rim. Three handsome geometric chains lead up from the base plate and connect to the top crown with an additional acorn finial and foliate designs above.
