An impressive and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Rouge Griotte marble centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by an elegant rectangular base with concave corners and a fine bottom ormolu band. At the center is the striking ormolu support with a richly chased mask of a bearded man flanked by most decorative swaging berried laurel garlands. The oblong Rouge Griotte marble bowl displays a superb mottled design with remarkable scrolled foliate handles on each side with superb acanthus leaves and rosettes with powerful richly chased lion heads at each side. Above is a lovely Les Oves designed mottled ormolu band at the rim with a removable fitted insert.
