An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Vert de Patricia marble Guéridon side table. The table is raised by fine hoof feet below richly chased acanthus leaves in a fine satin and burnished finish. The slender S scrolled legs display a bottom stretcher with a striking central urn and eternal flame. At the central tier is a fitted Vert de Patricia marble within ormolu gallery. Above are finely detailed rams heads with a ring in their mouth set on a fine twisted rope designed border framing the original Vert de Patricia marble top.
