A striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble Gueridon side table. The table is raised by its original casters below handsome paw feet and large richly chased acanthus leaves. Each elegant lightly curved support is connected by a triangular pierced bottom ormolu stretcher with concave sides and a beautiful urn with an eternal flame. At the center is a fine display tier with its original white Carrara marble framed within a lovely mottled ormolu gallery. Above each support are most decorative scrolled designs centering the original fitted white Carrara marble top, also framed within an elegant mottled wrap around gallery.
