A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble gueridon side table. The table is raised by three lightly curved legs with handsome ball and claw feet adorned with fine palmettes and connected by a concave stretcher with a striking foliate acorn finial in a rich satin and burnished finish. Above each leg are richly chased eagle heads with finely detailed plumage holding rings in their beaks. The center tier and the top display their original fitted white Carrara marble tops framed within a mottled border.
