A striking and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble gueridon side tables. Each table is raised by three lightly curved legs with handsome ball and claw feet adorned with superb acanthus leaves, and each connected by a triangular stretcher with concave sides and a striking foliate finial with a mottled dish. At the center are the original fitted white Carrara marble tops framed within a fine mottled beaded border. Above each leg are impressive richly chased eagle heads with finely detailed plumage holding rings in their beaks with the tops also retaining their original marbles framed within an additional wrap around mottled and beaded ormolu band. All original gilt throughout.
