An exceptional French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble gueridon table. The gueridon is raised by three handsome paw feet with acanthus leaves connected by a triangular stretcher with concave sides. At the center is the original circular white Carrara marble tier with a fluted gallery. Each elegantly curved support displays a top eagle head adorned with a large acanthus leaf holding a ring in its mouth. The original circular white Carrara marble top is framed within a most attractive and unique pierced gallery. All original gilt throughout.
