A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble lamp. The lamp is raised by a triangular white Carrara marble base with fine ormolu feet, cut corners, and rounded sides. Three elegantly curved supports lead upwards with handsome hoof feet and acanthus leaves centering a charming finely detailed foliate finial. Above each support are striking richly chased rams heads connected by superb swaging garlands with fruit and blooming flowers set on a lovely interlocking band and pierced spiral fluted design. All original gilt throughout.
