An exceptional and very unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, Baccarat crystal, and frosted glass chandelier. The twelve arm thirteen light chandelier is centered by a striking elegantly curved reeded and fluted Baccarat crystal bottom dome with a charming and finely detailed bottom foliate finial and a top wrap around twisted rope band. The Baccarat crystal dome houses one light bulb offering a beautiful warm glow. The lower six arms branch out from charming floral reserves and each displays exceptional scrolled Rinceau designs adorned with richly chased acanthus leaves and swaging berried laurel garlands leading to stunning extremely decorative shell shaped frosted glass dishes each housing a light bulb. Elegantly scrolled movements lead up the cage with large finely detailed acanthus leaves leading to the central tier of six additional curved branch like arms with beautiful leaves and exceptional crystal floral candle cups all below the tapered scrolled central support and acanthus leaf canopy.
