A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu bouillotte lamp. The lamp is raised by a beautiful pierced circular bowl with lovely foliate designs and a beaded band. At the center is a fluted support leading to three curved arms with fine circular mottled bobeches and candle cups. Above is the original patinated tole shade which is adjustable in height and secured by a beautiful ormolu screw with a charming heart design and a top hoop finial.
