A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu bouillotte lamp. The single three armed lamp is raised by a beautiful circular pierced base displaying a lovely interlocking design with a wrap around beaded band and striking curved foliate designs leading to the fluted circular central support. Each of the elegantly scrolled arms is adorned with richly chased acanthus leaves leading to circular bobeches with fine beaded bands, lovely floral mottled candle cups, and charming fletchings at the base. Above is the original tole shade which is adjustable in height and secured by beautiful ormolu fletchings below the pierced berried laurel wreath top finial.

Shade Diameter: 14"
